

It is imperative to maintain more than one editorial voice in America, in the media, in the same town. Otherwise there will be a monopoly of editorials and no one else shall be able to heard. Freedom of speech is not just for those who can afford to pay for it. Think of it this way sir, what if after allowing this thing to happen the media turn on you and your party where then shall you be able to get your message accross?